3 way learning conversations

Teachers and children are in the process of preparing for Learning Conversations with you in Weeks 8, 9 and 10. It will be an opportunity for your child to share their learning achievements with you. Students from different classes will share using different formats as negotiated with their teacher. It may range from discussing their progress and referring to specific examples of their work through to the use of e-folios (digital portfolios) highlighting their achievements and reflections.

The primary goal of these meetings is for the children to share their learning. Students are committed to achieving their personal best and they are very keen to show you just what they have achieved. Through this style of interviews, we aim to keep the students as central in the process as possible.

These conversations will also assist you to have a shared understanding of the assessment process as well as your child's achievements. Assessment for learning is defined as all of the activities undertaken by teachers and their students which provide information as feedback to modify the teaching and learning activities in which they are engaged. This is called formative assessment and it is effective when both teachers and students understand what leads to successful achievement.

Assessment for learning is a collaborative process between teachers and students. It informs students about how they are achieving against shared criteria. In fact, teachers and peers also provide feedback to students about their learning – what's going well and what could improve! A supportive approach in student assessment is to make the learning very clear so that the student is aware of, and understands, the task and what is necessary to demonstrate successful understanding.

While it is a time for the children to share their learning, it is a '3 Way' conversation, so you might like to think about the conversation you would like to have with your child and his/her teacher so that the child gets the most benefit.

An invitation to join the teacher for these conversations will be sent home this week by your class teacher and you need to nominate suitable times for your family to participate (please pick at least 3). You will then be informed of your appointment time by the class teacher.

Please ensure you; remember the time and date of your appointment, arrive on time and if a problem arises and you are unable to make your appointment, please contact the teacher to reschedule as soon as possible. On the night, please keep in mind that teachers will be speaking to many families, so to make it fair and equitable, they will need to keep to a strict timetable.

SAPSASA Basketball

This year our school entered four teams into the SAPSASA basketball competition. We had boys and girls representing the school in both the Year 5/6 and Year 6/7 competitions. Thank you for the great support from parents: transporting kids, scoring, cheering and coaching. Special mention needs to go to Graeme McDonald and Kirstie McLaren for organising and coaching our Year 6/7 teams. The kids had a fantastic time and all improved over the duration of the tournament. Both of the Year 5/6 teams found the competition very tough but showed great resilience in fighting out and improving their results over the day. The Year 6/7 boys had a very tough draw, playing against some of the strongest private schools in SA. Our Year 6/7 girls went through the day undefeated, however missed out on making the finals on percentage. A fantastic effort by all of the kids who represented our school with pride, well done!
