Wednesday 24th Parent Workshop – with Mark Le Messurier

Dear parents, carers, students and community friends,

Beyond NAPLAN

Last week 237 students in our school spent between four and five hours over three days sitting tests in the National Assessment Program in Literacy and Numeracy (NAPLAN). It is interesting that the debate about NAPLAN continues to wage, despite formalised literacy and numeracy testing having been in place in this state for nearly 20 years. In an article in The Advertiser on May 11th Professor Alan Reid, Professor of Education at the University of South Australia, discussed the dilemmas of the NAPLAN testing and particularly focussed on the fact that the tests have 'aged' and may no longer be relevant to today's curriculum and students.

Professor Reid challenged some assumptions in the NAPLAN debate:

The most obvious (assumption) is the repetitive refrain that we need to focus on the "basics" – meaning traditional versions of literacy and numeracy taught through traditional means, including drilling and skilling and rote learning. This assumption is usually accompanied by the claim that those who reject it are either opposed to accountability or don't want literacy and numeracy standards to rise.

Both of these assertions are incorrect. It may be important to focus on the basics, but why restrict the "basics" to just two areas? Surely in today's world there are a number of other basics – let's call them the 'new fundamentals' – which offer young people an armoury of skills and understandings to assist them as they negotiate the complexities of life in the 21st century.

Certainly literacy and numeracy are two of these. But they also include such capacities as critical and creative thinking, digital literacy, and intercultural understanding.

Shining the spotlight on a number of "new fundamentals" would arrest the current tendency to narrow the curriculum. They can be taught through all subject areas or, where appropriate, developed separately. Far from downgrading the significance of literacy and numeracy, such an approach would strengthen their importance by deepening the understanding of what it means to be literate and numerate in today's world.

Alan Reid

The Advertiser, May 11 2015

Our school has aimed to develop these 'new fundamentals' through a focus on the Expert Learner Qualities and the use of digital literacy and inquiry – among a range of other strategies. When we report to parents through conversations, blogs and student reports we aim to comment on student progress in the 'new fundamentals' as well as in literacy and numeracy.

This call to remember the breadth of learning skills and attributes (including literacy and numeracy skills) is something we must remember throughout the year and particularly when the NAPLAN results come out. In the meantime, we can put away the pen and paper test and get back to using oral presentations marked by parents and peers; the use of apps such as 'Explain Everything' or 'Bookcreator' where students directly demonstrate learning; and even the dioramas and poetry of our ANZAC studies.

It makes you think about assessment in the modern age, doesn't it?

A BIG 'THANK YOU'

Our school benefits enormously from the work of the many volunteers who offer us their help. Our volunteers include parents, grandparents, retired community members and mentors. They assist with making decisions through our committees and with enriching students' learning experiences both in and out of school hours. Some volunteers work on a weekly basis while others help out on occasion. All your work is valued by both staff and students and we'd like to say a big THANK YOU!

We'd also like to acknowledge the importance our volunteers place on child protection and thank you for your willingness to seek screenings and attend training in responding to abuse and neglect. We have over 300 volunteers who have current checks and who are helping in our school in some way. We appreciate every one of you!

A MESSAGE FROM THE MINISTER FOR EDUCATION AND CHILD DEVELOPMENT SUSAN CLOSE

As we celebrate National Volunteer Week, I take this opportunity to recognise and thank all of you who donate your time and energy to volunteering.

We are fortunate to have around 25,000 South Australians – parents, carers, grandparents and other community members - who put their hand up to help out in our preschools, children's centres, schools and child protection settings.

When I visit schools and sites, I often see or hear about volunteers' contributions. You take on many different roles – from helping in classrooms, coaching afternoon or weekend sports, staffing canteens, organising events, accompanying students on excursions, serving on committees or governing councils, to transporting children in care so they can maintain contact with relatives, or teaching languages in our ethnic schools so children can know their heritage.

Each role provides incredibly valuable support to children and their communities.

Not only do you help schools and sites to run more smoothly, you also help children and young people to develop skills, confidence and self-esteem. By donating your time and effort, you convey the message to children that they – and their education - are important.

Those of you who volunteer at your child's preschool, children's centre or school are also helping to set them up for success in their studies. Research tells us that children whose parents are involved in their education are more likely to stay in school longer and do better. And, as many of you have discovered, helping out in the classroom is a great way to find out what your children are learning and to get to know their teachers better.

This week, I join with your schools and sites in saying "thank you" to all our volunteers. Thank you for giving generously to your community and for being mentors and role models in children's lives. I wish you all a wonderful week celebrating your efforts.

PUPIL FREE DAY: TUESDAY JUNE 9th

Teachers are excited about the learning opportunity they will be offered on the next staff training Pupil Free Day. We are focussing on the Digital Technology section of the Australian Curriculum which has only been recently released. This is a follow-up to our day in March and will allow teachers the chance to revisit the curriculum and plan in year level teams for its implementation in classrooms.

Some of the exciting (and challenging) learning outlined in the Digital Technology curriculum includes programming and robotics, as well as a focus on using the technology to solve problems.

Thank you to parents for supporting staff learning. Did you know?

- Monday after school teachers meet in year level teams to plan class programs and discuss/moderate assessments.
- Tuesday after school is dedicated to whole school staff meetings focussed on our strategic directions, such as the implementation of the Australian Curriculum.
- Wednesday after school is specific training night, where teachers practise new ICT programs or share particular programs they are using in other curriculum areas. This is always led by our own teachers, practising their skills of collegiate leadership.

Once these 3:45 to 5:00 meetings are finished, teachers are free to return to their own classrooms and prepare for the next day! Now you know why we LOVE to have a whole day to focus on improving our teaching. We get excited by how much can be achieved to improve the learning of your children.

EDUCATION BLOG

Trying to find an article you read in a previous newsletter?

The Education Committee has initiated a blog that can be found at <https://clgpseducation.edublogs.org/> or found through the sidebar of the regular newsletter blog page.

Its purpose is to be a resource for parents and the wider school community to easily find information about various curriculum and student development programs that have been previously published in the newsletter. There are articles from the last two years and will be updated as more information is published. The blog can be easily searched and recent tags include resilience, app reviews, active thinkers, social learning, parenting styles and assessment. We hope that it is useful for the school community.

SRC EVENTS 2015

This year the SRC will be organizing two discos with a difference to previous years. We have been discussing in our meetings the importance of role modelling healthy eating at school and that food like chips and drinks, which are sometimes food should be eaten in moderation. This led to a big discussion about what we should be serving at the disco.

After exploring ideas in class meetings and SRC meeting we decided that it wasn't about saying no to sometimes foods but rather reducing how much we eat.

As a result it has been decided that instead of selling unlimited chips and drinks at the disco students will be required to pre purchase a disco token. This token will provide students with entry to the disco as well as one packet of chips, one can of lemonade and 2 glow sticks. Students can use the token at any time during the disco however they will not be able to purchase any more packets of chips or cans of lemonade. Glow sticks will be on sale at the disco though so if students would like to have more than 2 glow sticks they will be able to buy more.

The disco dates and times are as follows:

Thursday 11th of June, Term 2, Week 7 and
Thursday 17th of September, Term 3, week 9

Yrs 2-5: 5pm to 6:15pm

Yrs 6/7: 6:30pm to 8pm

Tickets will be on sale at lunchtime Monday to Friday of week 6. Tickets will not be available at the disco they must be pre purchased. Tickets will be $8 and include chips, drink and 2 glow sticks.

The R/1 discos will remain the same with students bringing money on the day. The R/1 disco dates are the same as the dates above but will be held at lunchtime.

The R/1 disco will cost $3 which includes a small packet of chips and a small drink. R/1 students will need to bring their $3 on the day of the disco and give it to their teacher.

Money raised from the discos will go towards purchasing new bins and seats for the school grounds.

SRC will also be organising two casual days to raise money for two charities of our choice. The dates of these casual days, the theme and the charities we will be raising money for are:

- Friday the 14th of August, Term 3, week 4 – footy colours day, raising money for people with cancer
- Friday the 13th of November, Term 4, week 5 – wear spots day, raising money to save the quoll.

We look forward to all students at CLG participating in these events.

Resource Centre News -Pay It Forward

It's easy at times to forget how lucky and privileged we are to have access to such a rich learning environment and an abundance of resources to help our children thrive. Each year, we "weed" our library collection to remove outdated, damaged and unused items from our shelves. These books that we were unable to sell at enterprise day have been donated to local man Steve Brimson who sends shipping containers of books and school supplies to remote and underprivileged schools in Vanuatu. Steve collected a large package of books from our library this week - it's fantastic to know that our unused books will be helping less advantaged children to learn and read.

BOOK FAIR

Your child should have come home with a Wish List of books they would like you to consider purchasing for our Book Fair this week. The Book Fair started Wednesday, and up until this Friday each class will visit the library for window shopping/browsing sessions and to have a sneak peak of items available for purchase. The Book Fair will open for sales from

MONDAY 25TH MAY 8.00AM – 6.00PM

TUESDAY 26TH MAY 8.00AM – 6.00PM

We will be accepting cash, eftpos and credit card payments to suit all families and budgets. This is another way your generosity is 'paid forward' as each sale earns commission for our library, which historically has equated to literally hundreds of new books for our collection. If an item is sold out, you are able to place an order and still receive the Book Fair discount prices (you must pre-pay for your order on the day). Your support and patronage of this event is gratefully appreciated, so thank you in advance.

Library VIP Morning Tea

Each term in the library we run a contest to see which class best follows the "Golden Rules" (Care, respect, positive attitudes and appropriate behaviours) when they visit the library. Ms. Schiccitano's Year 1 class set a stellar standard in term one and were rewarded with a Mad Hatter's VIP Morning Tea last Friday. We enjoyed a delicious morning tea and the children enjoyed watching Disney's original Alice in Wonderland movie in the library. Competition is already stiff this term – we wonder who will be our VIP's for Term 2's celebrations.

I am so proud of the students in our school for persisting to successfully complete the Premier's Reading Challenge. We are about half way through the challenge with 230 students finished, so we are well on our way to achieving our target of 100% completion. Congratulations to the following students who have completed the challenge in the past weeks.

The following students have finished the Challenge since last newsletter:

CANTEEN

Thank you for the support for the Special Meal Deal. This was a very labour intensive special aimed at providing the children with a "greener" (healthier) diet. Feedback from your child/ren would be very valuable . . if you can just spare a moment to let us know their thoughts please.

Without Nina's "wonder-machine" we would've been in trouble for time with the salads. Also, had Ruzelle not stayed late on Monday to help make the mousse, it would still be a powder!

So many thanks to all the helpers: Nina, Magali, Libby, Ruzelle, Kelly G, Kelly B, Kimberley, Madeline and Suzanne. – you are what makes special meals so special!

Enterprise Day BBQ

Thanks to everyone who supported the A/H Sports BBQ on Enterprise Day last term. We raised over $300 for new uniforms for our A/H sports teams. Thanks to Teresa Rosenzweig, Kendall Zimmermann and Sharon Harvey, the Sports Committee members who organised the BBQ. Many thanks also to our parent helpers, Norm Rosenzweig, Belinda Matajevic and Mandy Rebbeck, and to Clare, Aneesa and Jaydon from Rooms 2 and 3. We couldn't have done it without you. The BBQ will be back again next year, bigger and better!

The netball dresses have arrived, so look out for those, and singlets for all our basketballers have been ordered. Exciting!

SPECIAL PERSONS DAY

The Reception to Year 2 students are holding a Special Persons' Day on Thursday 25th June, week 9. Special Person's Day is specifically for significant adults in your child's life other than parents e.g. Grandparents, Aunt/Uncle, close family friend.

This year the children are performing a musical called 'EVERYBODY HAS MUSIC INSIDE'. As this is a popular event we need to limit the number of invited guests to a maximum of 2 per student. Please discuss with your child who they would like to invite so they can personalize their invitations.

This event is always very special for students and their special people and we are usually inundated with visitors. For this reason parents are invited to join us for the dress rehearsal on Wednesday 24th June.

A note with further details and invitations for your child's 'Special People' will be sent out soon.

FUNDRAISING COMMITTEE

Mother's Day was a huge success! Thank you to those who supported it and we hope you liked your special gift. This term we will have:

- Design- a brick – You will be offered the opportunity to buy a brick custom designed with your child's name that will be added to a permanent path near the Grange Building. Approximate cost $25

We are now preparing for our Quiz Night (being held in August). If anyone is interested in joining the team to help make this a successful night, please contact Kelly Gilbert kellygilbert@gmail.com. Thank you to those already offering prizes – we will be in touch soon.
